

Heroes of Surat!

Trendsetters, marvels, wonders or heroes, whatever name you might call them with, their contribution and excellence always stand apart. Surat also has had the privilege of giving birth to such exuberantly sincere and talented personalities who have not only made the city proud, but also given Surti's a unique identity across the nation. Last week was one such happening phase in the history of Surat, wherein five such heroes gathered on one platform with the combined efforts of Radio Mirchi and Harrod's the empire.

From 14th Oct to 18th Oct; Radio Mirchi and Harrod's the Empire recognized and cherished such Heroes by celebrating an entire week, wherein exclusive interviews of personalities like Bollywood music icon – Ismail Darbar, renowned theatre personality – Yezdi Karanjia, humanitarian social worker – Bharat Shah, famous writer and poet – Dr Mukul Choksi and business icon – Kamlesh Yagnik were aired. RJ Harsh from Radio Mirchi explored various less-known facts and the interesting journey of how these heroes of Surat made their way to success, on his show Lari-gupshup.

Moreover, with a grand audience of over five thousand people, Heroes of Surat were felicitated by the core committee of AR Group namely Prakash Agarbattiwala, Kishore Agarbattiwala, Pravin Rupawala, Kishore Rupawala and Amar Raval on the evening of 18th Oct; which gave this historical celebration, a commendable finish.
